Re: Collection proceedings relating to Calderon-Cardona v. Democratic People's Republic of Korea, (Dist. P.R. 08-CV-137).

SDNY Docket nos. 11-CV-3283, 3284, 3285, 3286, 3288, 3289, 3290, 3291, 3292

Dear Judge Cote,

This firm represents the petitioners/judgment-creditors in the actions referenced above. I write to request a modification of the briefing schedule embodied in the July 7, 2011 scheduling order.

The modification of the briefing schedule we seek would extend all the remaining deadlines by four days.

The reason for this request is that one of the attorneys who has been working on this matter and who has been primarily handling research and drafting has unfortunately been ill, and has been taking a medication that left him weak and limited his ability to work, and this has caused him to fall behind. Earlier today I reached out to the respondents/stakeholder banks' counsel to seek their consent. Several consented, one is on vacation, and none objected.

The modification requested is as follows:
